

Welcome to SJ4's Rockin Newsletter!

Okay let's start out with fresh news. We are booked at Holy Smokes BBQ in Pennsville for May 13th!! We are totally amped for this gig and we're hoping you can come out to raise the roof with us!

You guys are the reason we rock, so come on out and let's make it an SJ4 Rockin' Party.

Also, we are booked for May 6th at Wading Pines Camping Resort in Tuckerton, NJ. This gig could lead to some future shore gigs.....so get the suntan lotion and margaritas ready!

We played My Place for the second time last night. We built it up to a great show after we conquered a slippery floor under Jagger's feet....lol. We ended up with a few roofing shingles under the drum set, hey whatever works. We thank everyone who came out; we know everyone has tough schedules these days. You can see John Sr. is keeping us busy, and focused on the future to take SJ4 to the next level.

Wow, we were just getting ready to send this newsletter out and we get a phone call from Christiana Pub in Delaware asking to book us. So June 3rd we are back in Delaware. Thanks Joe and our Delaware fans – YOU GUYS ROCK!

On the miscellaneous band front, we have the equipment trailer logos on and our picture on the back, the website continues to grow, we will have a gig banner shortly, and we are looking into lighting packages (clap on, clap off... lol). That's about it for now, if you have any comments or questions send us a message from the website www.sj4classicrock.com so we can make it better for you guys!

Rock On,
SJ4
