

SJ4 Rockin Newsletter!
~Rock-n-Roll Cures the Soul!!~

ALRIGHT! We got ourselves all relaxed down at Wading Pines Campground! You guys gotta check this place out, lots of activities; great people and the facilities are super clean (www.wadingpines.com). We got rockin' at 7:00 and the Wading Pines campers decided it was time to let loose and rock the house with us – YOU GUYS ROCK, THANKS! Hope we see you out at our other shows this summer, keep an eye on the schedule until we get back there. Jagger kicked back in one of the cabins overlooking the fishing pond (there was a mouth watering smell of BBQ ribs coming out of there, must be one of the pre-show secrets for kick-a$$ drumming). Jeff laid back by the river in a tent site stoking the fire and relaxing the pipes. JC, John & Scott headed out on the road to make sure we're totally tuned up for our next gig at Holy Smokes in Pennsville. But man did they leave behind some smokin' guitar riffs that were still burning so hot, I think a few campers relit their fires off them. "Rockin the Free World!"

Okay, we need to see you guys out at Holy Smokes this Saturday night. We go on at 10:00pm, so you have time to get everyone settled in and then come out and party with us! For those of you who are traveling, come on down - there's an after party/late night breakfast party at Jeff & Stacey's – they got a place for you to crash so let's GET 'ER DONE!! Get your butts out and on the dance floor – HOLY SMOKES!!!

Everyone keeps asking, "What does SJ4 stand for, South Jersey Four?" Well, that seems to work except there are Five of us....lol. Hmmm.... Here ya go....there is 1 S (Scott), and 4 J's (John Sr., John Jr., Jagger & Jeff), so there ya have it – "SJ4". And if you've seen us play, you can say you've been SJ4'D as Denise adds the tambourine and moroccas!

Hey, here's a cool thing. If you go to the website you will see we have a chat page, well.....keep an eye on the scrolly thing on the main page and you will see our next practice date & time. Which means we will have the chat room open during that time, so stop in and say “Hey, how’s practice going?” You never know, we might be streaming some new stuff out to the World Wide Web and you’ll be the first to hear it straight from the SJ4 studio!

There ya go for our second edition newsletter, and remember to visit the website www.sj4classicrock.com and leave a message so we can yell back at ya.

Enjoy the rest of the week and Rock On!
SJ4 ~ JC, John, Scott, Jagger & Jeff ~
